Two of the fourteen "Beautiful America" awards being presented by the Editors of the magazine. The two organizations are being honored because of "work done in preventing the deterioration of the headwaters of the AuSable River Watershed."

In response to an article in January issue of HOLIDAY, Earl H. Longworth, Executive Manager of the Chamber of Commerce, sent a letter asking that the AuSable Watershed Study Council be nominated for this award. Included with Longworth's letter was a four-page "Story of the AuSable Watershed Study Council." However, on April 1, 1970, both the Study Council and the Chamber of Commerce were advised that each organization would receive an award for their efforts to conserve and improve our environment.

A Resident for Nearly 90 Years

Esbern Hanson, Grayling's Oldest Pioneer Passed Away Sunday

Esbern Hanson, Grayling's oldest pioneer passed away Sunday afternoon, May 10, 1970 at Mercy Hospital.

Mr. Hanson was born in Grayling October 7, 1880, the son of the late Rasmus and Margrethe Hanson, and had spent his entire life here.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, May 13 at the Sorenson Funeral Home at 2 p.m. with Pastor Robert Haskell officiating. Burial was at the Hanson family mausoleum at Elmwood Cemetery here.

He was married Sept. 21, 1910 to Lillian Marie Schaefer of Pittsburgh, Pa., who survives him, as well as one son, Esbern Hanson, Jr. of Bay City.

During his younger years, Mr. Hanson held several positions with the Salling-Hanson Co., in the lumbering business, between here and Johannesburg. He helped grade a railroad and helped build a bridge over the AuSable River when he was 19 years old.

He held the position of general manager of the S.H. Mills and Box Co. and the R. Hanson & Sons Mill where the golf club is now.

At one time he was president of the Grayling State Bank, vice-president of McCallahan Oil Co., vice-pres., North Michigan Land & Oil Co., and president of the St. Helen Shooting Club.

He was also a partner in a hardware business with T. P. Peterson and Fred Welsh here.

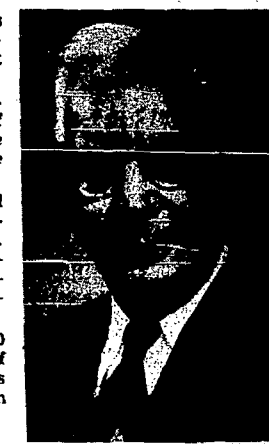

He was the benefactor of the property where the American Legion Bowling Alley, the City Hall and State Highway Dept. are now located.

Mr. Hanson was a member of the Grayling Masonic Lodge, No. 356. He received his Master Mason degree in 1921, received his life membership in 1941 and was presented a 60 year pin in 1962.

Honorary pallbearers were Dr. R. A. VanVleck, T. P. Peterson, Fred Welsh Sr., Dr. B. E. Henig, Dr. Vernon Blaha, Benjamin Jerome Sr., Paul Mayfield, Holger "Dad" Hanson and Carl W. Johnson.

Mrs. Joseph Stripe accompanied a bus load of her Spanish class to Michigan State University last Saturday to participate in International Day.

Flying Mushroom Hunters

Air travel is used for a multitude of things, but what happened at Grayling Airport last Saturday morning is believed to be a first for this area.

A small aircraft circled the field, and then landed without air to ground communications. The plane taxied to the far corner of the runways, and parked.

Wondering if the craft was in trouble, George McCarver, ground operation manager at the airport and J. T. McCarthy, President of Grayling Air, Inc., operators of the civilian portion of the airport, decided to investigate.

When the two drove up to the plane, two men were out of the craft, and when asked if they had trouble, they answered, no trouble, but could you tell us where the best place is to find mushrooms right around here. They had flown in from Toledo, Ohio, when they had heard models were starting to come out.

Local Student Wins Bentley Scholarship

OWUSSO — Mr. Thomas E. Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Wagner of 301 Brink Street, Grayling, has been named winner of an Alvin M. Bentley Foundation Scholarship Award for Excellence to Kirtland Community College for the academic year 1970-71. His scholarship amounts to $250.

Mr. Wagner, a graduate of Lansing Sexton High School, is currently attending Kirtland and maintaining a high grade point average. He is a member of the Student Senate and plans on majoring in Business Administration.

Four years ago the Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce was prompted by "far sighted citizens" to embark on "Operation AuSable." At the initial meeting on March 1, 1966 they were advised by a panel of experts that they had from "five to ten years" to act to save the rivers of Crawford County. The AuSable Watershed Study Council was organized under the guidance of Willard Bosserman, Crawford-Roscommon Extension Director.

This organization was the first to be formed in a northern area where a major recreation asset, the AuSable River, was threatened by expanding recreational use and recreational buildings.

Derek McEvers, now Mayor of Grayling, was chairman of the Council's Land Use Committee which drew up the first draft of the "green strip" zoning ordinance. This ordinance restricts building along a stream and provides that trees and vegetation must be left along a river to protect the water quality and prevent erosion.

Under the leadership of Bernard Fowler, Grayling Township Supervisor, the first "Green Strip" Ordinance was enacted in Crawford County.

This ordinance now applies to all rivers and tributaries in Crawford County.

According to Bosserman, Study Council President, the organization's future role will be to help neighboring counties solve the problems that Crawford has already solved.

What started out to be a routine check of a car stalled about four miles north of Grayling on Old 27, Monday, May 4, turned out to be the apprehension of two men and a woman wanted by Kentucky law enforcement officials, according to Crawford County Sheriff's deputies.

Donald, Kerns, 29, and his wife, Joan Marie, 22, of Henry County, Ky., were wanted on a charge of contributing to delinquency of a minor child. Mr. Kerns was also sought on a parole violation charge.

Stanley Aldridge, 17, also of Henry County, was wanted on a rape charge of a minor child, age 12, deputies said.

According to county deputies, all three are under investigation of two breaking and enterings in Ohio.

The three signed extradition papers and were returned to Kentucky by the Sheriff of Henry County, Friday, May 8.

The minor child with them was also taken back to Kentucky as a runaway, deputies said.

Mrs. Earl Broadbent came home from Munson Hospital in Traverse City on Tuesday of last week following an operation for cataracts. She is doing fine according to Mr. Broadbent.

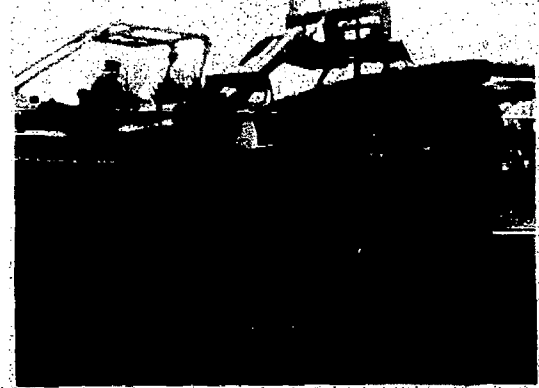

Crawford County Recreational Activities

"Bonanza" is the only word for Trout fishing in Crawford County this week. Anytime of the day and just about any fly could take the beautiful Trout. All Quality Fishing areas had tremendous hatches of Drakes, Beaverskill, and Stones. Bait fishermen and spin-casters also had their share of fine Trout fishing.

The Main Stream AuSable, South Branch, North Branch, and East Branch are normal and clearing rapidly. If warm weather continues, this week should produce good catches of Trout. This should be the week for more mushrooms and the hill country around Lovells, west and east of Frederic, and southwest of Grayling are the best spots for this delicacy of the north land.

Wild flowers are appearing. Migratory birds are back. All campgrounds are open. Spring has arrived.

A Gas incinerator eliminates a lot more than trash.

It eliminates any kind of combustible trash and garbage. Even things like corn cobs, cloth and bones—things you wouldn't dare drop into a garbage disposal. It eliminates odor. Smoke. Noise. It eliminates slogging through rain and mud. Nothing else gets rid of so many different kinds of rubbish. Or so many different kinds of problems. No more risking back trouble lugging rubbish. No more pollution from burning trash outdoors. No more arguments about who carries out the trash. In fact, no more trash problems. See your appliance dealer or contact Michigan Consolidated Gas Company about installing a Gas incinerator in your home. Then watch your rubbish problems disappear.

INTERPRETING THE NEWS

By Elmer E. White
Crashes Cost

Statistics dealing with motor vehicle crashes usually center on the number of persons killed in a given period of time. This year, these numbers alone are shocking enough. In 1969, the worst year in Michigan history for traffic deaths, 2,487 persons were killed on the state's streets and highways. But perhaps more shocking in terms of detailing total involvement of Michigan citizens in these crashes is the fact 175,400 other persons were injured. And a total of 331,223 accidents were reported!

All these figures were new highs, also, surpassing records set the previous year.

Economic loss as a result of these crashes reached a new high: it touched the $500 million level. This was a rise of 7.3 per cent from the $465 million cost of 1968.

The increase was attributed mainly to the rise in the number of motor vehicles, drivers and miles driven during the year.

Registered vehicles rose 5.3 per cent to 4.56 million, licensed drivers rose 1.6 per cent to 5.1 million and total vehicle miles traveled rose 5.9 per cent to 50.9 billion.

The death rate actually dropped during the year, averaging 4.89 deaths per 100 million miles of travel, compared to 4.97 deaths per 100 million miles in 1968.

Counselors Counted

If a recent sample survey of marriage counselors is indicative of the situation now existing in Michigan, more than one-third of the marriage counselors now operating in the state are unlicensed.

The state Auditor's office conducted the survey. It checked a total of 43 counselors who were advertising for business. Of the 43 checked, 16 were not licensed. The report concluded that procedures need to be established to properly police public advertising of marriage counselors to make sure only licensed counselors advertise.

As of the first of this year, only 123 persons had been certified as marriage counselors and authorized to practice in the state.

State Licensing and Regulation Director Charles E. Harmon said he doesn't doubt that a large percentage of the marriage counselors now advertising are unlicensed.

"The board (of Marriage Counselors) has begun to look into enforcement of the 1966 act governing counselors," he said. "Enforcement is a problem but up to this point the board has not had the time to really look into it."

Harmon said the seven-member board has just finished organizational duties involved in setting up the controlling commission.

Michigan has strict requirements for licensing marriage counselors.

To obtain a license a person must hold a doctorate in psychology, sociology, psychiatry, marriage or pastoral counseling together with five years of professional experience under the supervision of a certified counselor. Licenses also are given to persons with master's degrees in social work or marriage counseling and with five years experience.

Besides having the required education, an applicant must be a Michigan resident, be of "good moral character" and pay a $25 annual fee.

Harmon said if a person wants to make sure a marriage counselor is licensed, they should contact the department in Lansing, which can make a quick report.

Horses Ride Again

Horses are making a comeback in the state which did the most to put them out of business, says a Michigan State animal expert.

Professor Good says the horse population in Michigan has grown from a low of about 15,000 in the 1940s to around 100,000 today.

"The investment in horses and facilities in Michigan has reached nearly $250 million," he says. "In addition, 1969 pari-mutuel betting in Michigan totaled $175 million. The state's share from horse racing in 1969 was about $20 million."

Good says most of the growth in horse population is not coming on farms, but instead "has been in metropolitan areas such as Wayne, Kent and Oakland counties."

Final Rites Read For Frank P. Capo

Funeral services for Frank P. Capo, 67, of Grayling, were held on Saturday, May 9, at St. James Catholic Church in Bay City. Rosary was recited at Sorenson Funeral Home Thursday, with Prayers for the Dead on Friday at W. A. Trahan Funeral home in Bay City. Burial was in Oakwood Mausoleum, Saginaw.

Mr. Capo was born January 21, 1903 in Brownstown, Pa. and passed away on May 6 at Grayling. He had lived in Grayling for nine years, coming here from Bay City. He was a supervisor at Grayling Reel.

Surviving is his widow, Mary; one daughter, Mrs. Joseph (Rose Marie) Dumas of Piscataway, N.J.; one brother, Harold Capo of Cleveland, Ohio; two sisters, Mrs. Marshall California of Irvine, Pa. and Mrs. George LaPointe of Attauwagan, Conn.

Serving as pallbearers were James Duley, Wesley LaGrow and Stanley Swanton of Grayling; Bill Matthews of St. Helen and Al Cornelius and Gordon Terrill, both of Bay City.

GOOD NEWS

"Too good to believe!" Sometimes we receive news so joyous that we are almost afraid to accept it—the birth of a child, a crisis past, a successful business venture. Yet the greatest good news that can be ours, we often take for granted and lose the profound joy of it.

What if we had never heard the message which the Christian Church proclaims? What if we knew nothing of a Saviour who died that all men might be forgiven, who gives us the assurance of everlasting life!

If this good news were revealed to us suddenly, we might well say, "It's so good that it's hard to believe." But it has been verified by countless millions of believers in all lands, through many generations. We accept it in our own hearts, and the confirmation becomes personal.

We know, then, that in the Christian Church we hear the best news that has ever come to the human race.

Grayling, Michigan — Thursday, May 14, 1970

Prime Time in Michigan

May and Michigan Week were meant for each other. What better time to bring to a climax the people-production known as MICHIGAN WEEK than the month when Michigan looks its spring-summer best?

We can expect arguments at this point—from the winter sports fans who think winter in Michigan is the most—from the advocates of Michigan's beautiful budding spring—from autumn enthusiasts who love the phenomena of changing colors. Yet, even when people argue in favor of another season, they point up the fact that Michigan has something going for it through every season of the year.

The third week in May is an idyllic period when spring has reached its peak and the best of summer is about to begin. An ideal time, indoor or outdoor, for any and all of the programs with which Michigan people observe Michigan Week. Parades, festivals, tours, exhibits, open houses — any and all of these fit well into the scheme of Michigan Week. Villages, cities, communities of every size demonstrate their pride in their state by whatever manner of activity suits them best.

Michigan's State Flag

Although Governor Stevens T. Mason unfurled the first Michigan flag in Detroit in 1837, the blue banner familiar to Michigan citizens today dates back to 1865.

The present Michigan colors were raised for the first time at ceremonies in Soldiers' National Cemetery, Gettysburg, Pa., on July 4, 1865. Michigan's state flag, officially adopted in 1911, is a modification of the 1865 design which had a United States coat of arms on the reverse side.

Focal point of the Michigan flag is the state coat of arms which was designed by General Lewis Cass, governor of Michigan territory from 1813 to 1831. The national motto, "E Pluribus Unum" ("from many, one"), appears at the top, symbolizing the formation of one nation from many states.

The American eagle indicating the United States' superior jurisdiction stands above a shield emblazoned with the Latin word "Tuebor" for "I will defend," referring to Michigan's strategic, geographic position on the frontiers of the new nation. Michigan's great animals, the elk and moose, support the shield, below which is inscribed "Si Quæris Peninulam Amoenam, Circumspice" . . . If you seek a pleasant peninsula, look about you.

The shield's interior design shows the sun rising over a lake and a man standing on a peninsula. His right hand is raised signifying peace, his left hand holds a rifle, meaning that he also stands ready to defend the state and the nation. Michigan's flag is symbolic of her great heritage.

One hundred rainbow and one hundred brown trout will be planted in the pullover every month by the Conservation Department. Half of the trout will be spot planted and half will be planted from a boat over a considerable area. All of the trout will be tagged.

Mrs. Alfred Hanson left on Wednesday on the first lap of her intended trip to Denmark. She, with Mrs. Louis Cariveau, drove to Detroit to spend until Friday, when the latter planned to return to Grayling, and Mrs. Hanson to leave for New York City. She expects to sail for Copenhagen, Denmark, aboard the M. S. Batory on May 20, and will visit relatives in that city and in Falster.

Two forest fires ravaged over 300 acres of Crawford County over the weekend, with a Saturday fire destroying 270 acres of forest near K.P. Lake and a Sunday blaze eating through 40 acres of jackpine near the AuSable River at Stephan's Bridge. As of noon Monday, the entire north half of the Lower Peninsula of the state was placed on an emergency footing as far as forest fires were concerned. The lack of falling dew during the past few nights, coupled with a warm sun and drying winds has made the North's forest lands extremely dry.

Saturday evening the community gathered at the Maple Forest town hall to entertain Sergeant and Mrs. Otis Feldhauser and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Parsons at a double shower. A large table, centered by a flowered umbrella, with streamers and flowers divided the two huge piles of gifts. After the many useful gifts were opened a delicious pot-luck lunch was enjoyed by all. Much credit for this party is due Bessie and Dora Feldhauser, who shouldered the responsibility of this gay affair.

Bosserman Authors Homelife Bulletin

Willard Bosserman, County Extension Director for Crawford and Roscommon counties recently authored a bulletin to help people select and develop their vacation homesites.

It gives prospective vacation homesite buyers a guide in selecting a site in relation to slope, drainage, view and soil type.

Soil type is important where private sanitary facilities are necessary. Bosserman urges homesite buyers to avoid clay soil where disposal fields work very poorly.

He stresses the importance of consulting county and township officials regarding zoning and building codes before the parcel of land is purchased.

Bosserman gives many suggestions about landscaping the vacation home to harmonize with the natural surroundings of northern Michigan.

He suggests plants that will give food and cover for birds and other wildlife as well as more conventional planting material.

The bulletin can be used by realtors to give to their prospective buyers. It is hoped that a more beautiful Michigan will ensue.

The bulletin is published by the Cooperative Extension Service of Michigan State University. It will be available from Extension offices throughout the state as well as from realtors.

FOR THE FAMILY MANAGER

ITEM: Researchers say full color photographic labels do affect a customer's choice of products. One salt manufacturer packaged his product in a colorful container and sales went up an average of 25 to 30 per cent.

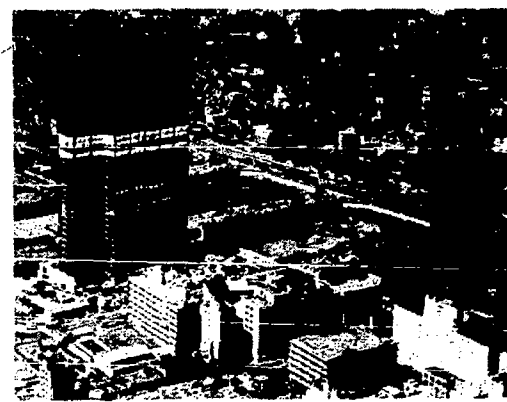

ITEM: Socks, stockings and other hosiery fitted incorrectly can cause as much damage as a poorly fitted shoe. Tight-fitting stockings may cause crooked toes, hammer toes and bunions.

ITEM: Chicken noodle soup must contain at least two per cent chicken, according to USDA standards. A soup that contains less must be called something like "chicken-flavored noodle soup," and would not be considered a poultry product.

ITEM: Consumer protection is a two-way street. The reliable manufacturers seek to protect his reputation by providing up-quality products and complete instructions for their use. Consumers who wish to protect their investment should read and follow instructions carefully.

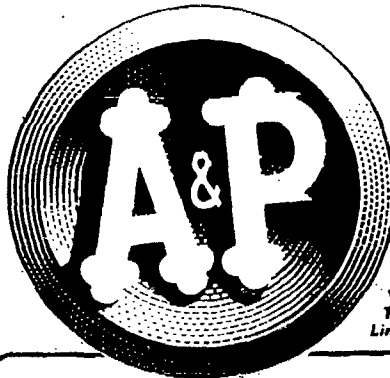

ITEM: Surveys of school children have indicated that symptoms of under nutrition may be found in 15 to 20 per cent of the children observed.

Sunday to Mark Role of Religion

Church bells will ring out across the state today, Sunday, May 17, signalling Michigan's observance of Spiritual Foundations Day in Michigan Week.

America's religious heritage goes back to its founding fathers, and the first residents of Michigan brought their religious beliefs and their church training along when they came to this territory. Michigan people owe a great debt to the churches and to the religious men and women who put down roots here.

On Spiritual Foundations Day, religious denominations and institutions pause to pay tribute to religion's continuing role through the years in Michigan, recognizing its part in Michigan life now and in the future.

Compost Fights Air Pollution

By Willard Bosserman
County Extension Director

Composting your leaves instead of burning them will make you a two time winner.

First composting will prevent air pollution by eliminating the need to burn them.

Secondly you can use the compost material to enrich your vegetable or flower garden. After two or three years it will be decomposed enough to spread back on your lawn, thus enriching it also.

Making a compost of your leaves and other organic wastes makes a lot of sense. It is part of "recycling" that we have been talking about these past months during earth days.

How to Make a Compost Pile.
The first step is to start the pile with about four inches of leaves, grass clippings or other organic material.

The second step is to cover this with about an inch or less of top soil. The top soil is loaded with microorganisms which will go to work immediately decomposing the organic matter. The bacteria break it down into unorganic components. You then add the next layer of organic material and repeat the same procedure.

This is all that is necessary, but there are some things you can do to hasten the process.

The decomposition process produces a slightly acid condition. This is not serious. But this can be corrected by just sprinkling some lime on each layer of the compost pile. Bacteria also use large amounts of nitrogen when decomposing organic matter. By sprinkling some fertilizer high in nitrogen on each layer will help feed the bacteria.

The action proceeds more rapid if all of the ingredients are thoroughly mixed. It should also be kept moist, not soaking wet, but moist. The bacteria need both air and water to function at top speed.

You can keep it confined to the area desired if you use a wall of some kind. A cement block wall is best.

A wall will help keep it moist because you can keep the top of the pile flat or slightly dish so the water soaks into the material instead of running off.

You can have good rich soil to add to your garden in one year if you add organic matter, top soil (bacteria) lime, nitrogen fertilizer, water and mix thoroughly. Mix it as you add the ingredients. Do not disturb too often during the year.

Some people have questioned the value of oak leaves. Oak leaves will work just as good as any. Even pine needles will work. They will give as excellent results if all of the ingredients are added.

This is how you can do your part to recycle organic materials and help fight the air pollution.

Policyholder Questions Answered by the Health Insurance Institute, 277 Park Ave., N. Y., N. Y., 10017

Q. We recently took out a health insurance policy. The insurance man mentioned something about "the grace period." What did he mean?

A. The "grace period" keeps a policy in force 31 days after the premium is due. After that, the policy lapses. To reinstate it, you must again apply for coverage and may be required to take a physical examination. Losses which occur while the policy is not in force, are, of course, not covered.

Q. Will my health insurance policy pay for annual physical check-ups for me and my wife?

A. No. Currently the physical examination which is under-gone solely to determine the general health condition of an individual is not a procedure for which a benefit claim can be made on a health insurance policy.

However, provision for tests of various types, including X-ray and other diagnostic procedures, are usually available to hospitalized patients under basic hospital-surgical policies, and under all major medical policies in or out of the hospital.

Q. With the cost of drugs and medicines so high, I've been wondering lately if there is any type of health insurance policy which pays for them even though you aren't in the hospital?

A. There is no individual policy which pays only for drugs and medicines, although some group plans and other plans for persons over 65 years of age are available with such benefits.

Major medical expense insurance, however, helps pay for all prescribed drugs and medicines both while you are in a hospital and at home convalescing. Major medical insurance also helps pay for hospital and medical-surgical expenses.

According to the United States Public Health Service, the average American spends $20.50 a year on prescribed and non-prescribed medicines.

With age, this average increases. For example, the average cost of prescribed medicines per year for youngsters under 15 years of age is $6.40. For persons over 65 the cost is $41.40.

Letters To The Editor

Can you tell me why it should take almost 20 minutes for the ambulance to go from "that castle on the hill" called the Sheriff's Office, to the Receiving Entrance of Bear Archery? The call was made to the Sheriff's Office at 9:45 a.m. (by my watch) and at 9:55, when the ambulance hadn't arrived yet, I placed another call and was told they had to find a driver! Finally, at 10:03 a.m. (by my watch) the ambulance pulled into the front drive of Bear Archery... now that's 18 minutes! And the patient was suffering from a possible heart attack! And the people of Crawford County are paying taxes for that "castle" and all its "beautiful fixtures"? It seems to me a lot of tax money being paid for "looks" and "NO SERVICE."

If it is necessary to "find" a driver for the ambulance, why isn't some of the money appropriated for a full-time ambulance driver, instead of the many receptionists, etc. that seem to abound in the "lobby" of the Court House?

Tax Refunds to Take Ten Weeks

Detroit, Mich. — Ten weeks from the date a Federal income tax return calling for a refund is mailed, the taxpayer should have either his check or a letter explaining why it is held up, Thomas A. Cardoza, District Director of Internal Revenue for Michigan, said today.

A taxpayer who has not heard about his refund should, therefore, wait ten weeks before writing IRS. Most taxpayers will find their inquiry unnecessary if they wait this long, Mr. Cardoza said.

Millions of tax returns are handled every filing season at the Central Service Center which serves Michigan taxpayers. That many returns makes it practically impossible to locate a particular return and to answer any questions about it until processing cycles are complete.

If it does become necessary to write, the taxpayer should indicate where and when he filed his return and give his name, address and Social Security number, Mr. Cardoza said.

FORT MICHILIMACKINAC MASSACRE REENACTMENT
MAY 29-31

THIS IS THE SEVENTH YEAR THE CITIZENS AND SCHOOL CHILDREN OF MACKINAW CITY HAVE DONNED COSTUMES TO REENACT THE CAPTURE OF FORT MICHILIMACKINAC BY CHIPPEWA AND SAUK INDIANS DURING CHIEF PONTIAC'S CONSPIRACY OF 1763. PLAYING LA CROSSE WHILE THE BRITISH GARRISON WATCHED, THE INDIANS USED A STRAY BALL AS A RUSE TO DASH INSIDE THE FORT. TWENTY BRITISH SOLDIERS AND A CIVILIAN WERE KILLED.

TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS USUALLY HAPPEN AFTER DARK, ON TWO-LANE ROADS, AT SPEEDS TOO FAST FOR CONDITIONS, WITH ALCOHOL A MAJOR FACTOR. KEEP THESE DANGERS IN MIND WHEN DRIVING AFTER SUNDOWN. SLOW DOWN AND HELP "BRING 'EM BACK ALIVE!"

Hustler Season Approaches Again

"Many thousands of dollars will be wasted this spring and summer by Michigan people who think they're getting something for next to nothing, in reality, they're getting nothing for something," warns Walter Tervo, executive secretary of the Michigan Asphalt Paving Association.

Tervo was referring to the annual "gypsy paving racket" in which bands of itinerate gypsies go house to house about this time of year offering to re-surface your driveway with a tar-based substance for a few dollars.

"Actually, a worthless paint compound, similar in appearance to the sealing compound used by reputable firms, but lacking proper chemical ingredients, is used by the band, Tervo stated.

"Costs usually is whatever the market will bear, and threats of physical violence have been used against people who complain or threaten to talk to authorities.

"Reputable paving firms would do a far better job at less cost than that extorted by the gypsies working the racket," said Tervo.

"Anyone approached should first check with their local police, Better Business Bureau or our association's state office before agreeing to the work," he said.

P.S.C. Approve Pipeline Construction

LANSING — Construction of a short pipeline to transmit natural gas from a new oil field in Otsego County to Michigan Consolidated Gas Company's main gas pipeline was approved today by the Public Service Commission (PSC) of the Michigan Department of Commerce.

The PSC approved Michigan Consolidated's application to build a 6-5/8-inch pipeline from Shell Oil Company's new Gaylord-Tecon Lake Oil Field in Hayes Township southwest of Gaylord to its existing pipeline in Otsego Lake Township, a distance of 2.6 miles.

In its application, Michigan Consolidated said there are an estimated five billion cubic feet of recoverable reserves of natural gas in the Gaylord-Tecon Lake Oil Field.

Gas delivered to Michigan Consolidated's main Northern Michigan pipeline will be distributed to customers served by the pipeline which extends from Grayling to Cheboygan and Mackinac City.

Shell Oil will build a gathering system and compressor station in its oil field while Michigan Consolidated will build a regulating, ordering and measuring station in addition to the pipeline.

GRAYLING STUDENTS PITCH-IN — The three photos here show only a portion of the clean-up activities the students of Grayling did Monday, May 4, to help kick-off "Clean-up Week." Trash was picked up all over the city, while other students called on residents with old cars and heavy debris, for permission to have the items hauled away on May 8-9. The afternoon clean-up was climaxed with a parade down Michigan Avenue, led by the high school band, and included trucks and cars with trailers hauling the trash.

"All-Purpose" Sportsman's License for Residents Not Designed to Rule Out Individual Purchases

LANSING — In an effort to clear up some misunderstanding, the Department of Natural Resources advises Michigan hunters, fishermen, and trappers that they could still buy individual licenses if a "all-purpose" sportsman's license were established for residents under legislation now pending.

The proposed optional license for all seasons, presently price tagged at a money-saving $18, is being sought under Senate Bill 105 and House Bill 2160, both of which have cleared their respective Houses.

S.B. 105 is now before the House Conservation and Recreation Committee, while H.B. 2160 has reached the Senate Committee on Conservation and Tourist Industry.

As now worded, both measures would provide a bargain package for resident sportsmen covering the existing privileges of the state's firearm and archery deer licenses, bear license, small game license, general trapping license (except for beaver and otter), annual fishing license, special trout and salmon license.

Engagement Announced

10 Crawford County Avalanche

Thursday, May 14, 1970

Mr. and Mrs. Charles MacKenzie announce the engagement of their daughter, Hannah Major Kroll, to Mr. Ned Garrett Shure, Son of Dr. and the late Mrs. Harry L. Shure of New York City.

The young couple reside in Ann Arbor where both attended the University of Michigan. A June 27th wedding has been planned.

Catholic Fund Campaign Sunday

Members of Catholic parishes in this area will participate in the 16th annual Diocesan Development Fund Campaign starting next Sunday.

The appeal for funds is conducted in the 130 parishes and 51 missions which comprise the Catholic diocese of Grand Rapids in 29 counties of Western Michigan.

The drive is under the leadership of Bishop Joseph M. Breitenbeck who assumed spiritual jurisdiction of the diocese on December 2, succeeding the late Bishop Allen J. Babcock.

Assisting Bishop Breitenbeck in the campaign are James M. McInerney, a Grand Rapids industrialist as Lay Chairman, and Father Robert J. Rose, dean of college students at St. Joseph's Seminary of Grand Rapids, as Clergy Chairman.

Funds raised in this yearly campaign are used for the education of young men for the priesthood, for religious education of children not in parochial schools, for migrant workers, for assistance of programs in the inner city of Grand Rapids and Muskegon, for social services, and for similar causes.

The formal drive among parishioners will continue for one week. Extension of the campaign will be allowed in those parishes where all potential donors had not been contacted during the first week.

BITS O' TALK

Garrett Van Rieglestein and Gene Wilson of Grand Rapids spent several days at Beaver Bend Lodge doing some trout fishing. They reported that the fishing last week was very good in spite of the high water and weather conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Holcomb visited the Richard Speakers at Adrian and attended the Parents Weekend festivities at Adrian College.

Mrs. Ron Holcamp of Royal Oak and Mrs. Jerry Slaby of Traverse City visited their mother, Mrs. Beatrice Brown, who is a patient in Mercy Hospital, on Mother's Day. Another daughter, Mrs. Robert Brady of Detroit visited Beatrice the previous weekend.

Mrs. Norma Hull and Mr. and Mrs. Arnie Mauren and Paul were at Pleasant Lake over the weekend to attend the christening of their grandson, Todd Joseph Hull, son of the Jack Hulls.

Mrs. Laura Johnston left Monday for Saginaw where she will undergo medical treatment there. She expects to be gone about a week and will stay with her daughter while there.

Nine Certified As Instructors

In an instructor course sponsored by the National Rifle Association, nine local persons were certified as N.R.A. Marksmanship Training Instructors.

N.R.A. Training Counselor, Gideon Robarge, also certified Phil Miller, Kenneth Montague and Sigrid Schramm as shotgun instructors.

With this number of instructors the Grayling Sportsman's Club hopes to expand its marksmanship training program for the benefit of Crawford County residents.
